

Blest is the Man who Perseveres

By Rev. John C. Stennfeld

Text: James 1:2-3, 12-18

Tune Meter: CM

Suggested Tune: St. Agnes

Blest is the man who perseveres
When trials come his way;
When he has stood the test he will,
God's crown of life, display.

Consider it pure joy, my friends,
When you must face a test,
For in the end you'll nothing lack,
And God will give you rest.

When tempted no one e'er should say
That "God is tempting me,"
For God does not tempt anyone,
But from sin set us free.

Don't be deceived, my brothers dear,
Good gifts come from above,
From God who birthed us through His word
And never changing love.

So may we ever trust in God
When trials come our way,
And thus receive His crown of life
When He returns one day.
