

“Do Not Suppose That I Have Come”

By Rev. John C. Stennfeld

Text: Matthew 10:34-42

Tune Meter: CM

Suggested Tune: St. Agnes

“Do not suppose that I have come
To bring peace,” said our Lord,
“For I did not come to bring peace
But, rather, bring a sword.

I came to turn a man against
His own close family,
That he would never love his own
More than he does love me.

For he who wants to follow me
Must e’er take up his cross,
To live a life of sacrifice
And count his life a loss.

But to the man, who for my sake,
Endures both pain and strife,
I promise I will give to him
The crown of lasting life.”

And so, dear Lord, we humbly pray,
Each day, our whole lives through,
That we not love anyone else
More than we do love you.
