

God Gave to Moses Words to Say

By Rev. John C. Stennfeld

Text: Deuteronomy 30:15-20

Tune Meter: LM

Suggested Tune: St. Crispin

God gave to Moses words to say,
That Israel might hear and obey,
To choose between both death and life,
To live most blest or suffer strife.

For those who walk in righteous ways
Will be, by God, blest all their days;
By faith they'll pass through heaven's door,
Where worldly pains will hurt no more.

But those who turn away from God
Shall feel the wrath of His fierce rod;
They will, each, pay for their disdain,
And life, in heav'n, they will not gain.

Choose life, therefore, so you may live,
And know the gifts God wants to give,
That long, on earth, your life will be,
And blest by Him eternally.

"Singing Thru The Scriptures"

©2023 Rev. John C. Stennfeld