

How Lovely is Your Dwelling Place

By Rev. John C. Stennfeld

Text: Psalm 84

Suggested Tune: St. Peter

Tune Meter: CM

How lovely is your dwelling place,
O God, my Lord most high;
My soul will ever yearn for You,
To You my heart will cry.

How blessed are those who dwell with You,
And give to You their praise,
For with Your strength they will be filled
Throughout their earthly days.

Please hear my prayer, O Lord my God,
Look kindly on my face;
With favor look on me, Your child,
And shine on me Your grace.

For better is one day with You
Than ten thousand elsewhere;
In your house I would rather serve
Than reign on earth somewhere.

The Lord bestows His favor on
Those who walk without blame,
