

How Many are Your Works, O Lord

By Rev. John C. Stennfeld

Text: Psalm 104:24-30

Suggested Tune: St. Anne

Tune Meter: CM

How many are your works, O Lord?

You wisely did them all;

Created life to fill the earth,

Made them both great and small.

The creatures of the sea, you made,

And those that walk on land,

And so too, those which fill the skies

Are all works of your hand.

You give to them their life and breath,

And You can take away,

For ev'ry blessing on this earth

Comes from your hand each day.

So may we only glorify

And sing our praise to you,

The one who made all that exists,

Until our lives are through.
