

My Thoughts are Not the Same as Yours

Text: Isaiah 55:8-11

By Rev. John C. Stennfeld

Tune Meter: CM

Suggested Tune: Dundee

“My thoughts are not the same as yours,”
Declared our God and Lord;
For if they were, Christ’s blood, for sin,
Would not have been outpoured.

As high as heav’n is over earth,
So God’s ways dwarf our own,
And while we languish through this life
He reigns upon His throne.

As rain and snow come down from heav’n
To make plants bud and grow,
So, too, God’s word will always make
His gracious blessings flow.

And so, dear Lord, send forth your word,
Your purpose to fulfill;
Help us to know your higher ways,
That we may do your will.
