

O Lord, You Know and Have Searched Me

Text: Psalm 139:1-10

By Rev. John C. Stennfeld

Tune Meter: CM

Suggested Tune: St. Peter

O Lord, you know and have searched me,
You're privy to my ways;
My thoughts you know e'en from afar,
And watch me all my days.

Before a word is on my tongue
You know just what I'll say;
You see me when I sit and rise
And when I kneel to pray.

Such knowledge is too wonderful,
Too much for me to take,
That you perceive my ev'ry thought
And ev'ry move I make.

If to the heavens I should go,
Or in the earth shall sleep,
E'en there your hand will hold me fast
And guard me as your sheep.

You made my inmost being, Lord,
And knit my inner frame,
Thus only you will I exalt
And evermore proclaim.
