

Praise the Lord from Highest Heaven

Text: Psalm 148

By Rev. John C. Stennfeld

Tune Meter: 87 87 D

Suggested Tune: In Babilone

1 - Praise the Lord from highest heaven,

Praise Him in the heights above;

Praise Him all His heav'nly angels,

Praise our God, the King of love.

Praise Him sun and moon and heavens,

Praise Him all you shining stars;

Praise him all you far off planets –

Venus, Jupiter, and Mars.

2 - Let them all sing praise to Yahweh,

For He set them in their place;

By His word they were created,

Touched forever by His grace.

You great creatures of the ocean,

And you mountains, start to sing;

Stormy winds and crawling creatures,

Give your praise to God our King.

3 - Let them praise the name of Yahweh,

His name only shall we praise;

Give to Him all our devotion

All throughout our earthly days.

His the splendor, His the glory,

His the power e'er shall be,

Let all Israel sing to Yahweh,
Now and through eternity.
