

Since You, Then, Have Been Raised with Christ

Text: Colossians 3:1-11

By Rev. John C. Stennfeld

Tune Meter: CM

Suggested Tune: St. Flavian

Since you, then, have been raised with Christ,
Set your hearts high above,
Where seated at God's own right hand
Is Christ, the King of love.

Set not your minds on things below,
On earthly ways of sin,
For baptized into Christ's own death
We have been washed within.

Put now, therefore, to death all greed,
All slander, rage, and lust,
And live instead as God's own child
In faith and love and trust.

For now in Christ there is no Greek,
No Jew, no slave, no free,
But Christ is all in all for us,
And will forever be.
