

Sometimes in Life We Feel Like God is Nowhere to be Found Text: I Kings 19:9b-18

By Rev. John C. Stennfeld

Tune Meter: CM

Suggested Tune: St. Peter

1) Sometimes in life we feel like God
Is nowhere to be found,
And though we call on Him in prayer
We feel we've been let down.

2) And so Elijah called to God
To look for some relief,
For though he had obeyed the Lord
His life was full of grief.

3) The Lord told him to go stand on
A mountain great and high,
And as Elijah hid his face
The Lord came to pass by.

4) First came a great and mighty wind,
Then too, a big earthquake,
A fire then followed close behind –
All forms God did not take.

5) And then there came a still, small voice;
Elijah hid his face,
For in that moment he soon knew
That God was in that place.

6) For God is not only revealed
In great and mighty ways,
But often softly comes to us
Throughout our earthly days.

7) So may we thus not look for God
In might and strength alone,
But see Him too in little things
Until He brings us home.
