Upon the Cross Christ Died for All

By Rev. John C. Stennfeld

Text: II Corinthians 5:16-21

Tune Meter: 86 866

Suggested Tune: Lobt Gott, Ihr Christen

Upon the cross Christ died for all,

But rose to life again,

That all who live and trust in him

Should be freed from their sin,

Should be freed from their sin.

Now anyone who is in Christ,

By him has been made new,

The old has gone, the new has come

For both Gentile and Jew,

For both Gentile and Jew.

Our God, in Christ, has reconciled

The world unto Himself,

And thus, our witness to His grace

Must not be on a shelf,

Must not be on a shelf.

For He made him who knew no sin

To become sin for me,

That I might be God's righteousness

And live eternally,

And live eternally.
