

When We were Lost and Sinners Still

By Rev. John C. Stennfeld

Suggested Tune: Evan

Text: Romans 5:8

Tune Meter: CM

When we were lost and sinners still
God sent forth His own son,
To bear our sin and pay the price,
And gain our salvation.

God's love for us, so great, so wide,
That His own son He gave,
To die a death on Cal-vry's cross,
Our sinful lives to save.

What greater love could God have shown
Than what He did for me,
That His own son would give his life,
Ungodly though I be.

Since we have now been justified,
And our sins washed away,
Thus may we trust in God's great love
Until our dying day.
