

Whither Thou Goest, I Will Go

By Rev. John C. Stennfeld

Text: Ruth 1:16-18

Tune Meter: CM

Suggested Tune: St. Agnes

“Whither thou goest, I will go,”
Said Ruth to Naomi,
“May death alone be the thing that
Separates you from me.

Your God will be the One I serve,
Your people be mine too,
And I will stay right by your side
Until my life is through.”

May we, from Ruth, learn how to be
A follower of God,
That we may go where e'er He leads,
Whatever path we trod.

And may we cling to Him alone,
Till our lives here are done,
That we may then receive the life
Won for us by God's son.
