

Who is the Greatest in God's Sight

by Rev. John C. Stennfeld

Text: Mark 9:33-41

Tune Meter: CM

Suggested Tune: Dundee

Who is the greatest in God's sight,
The twelve all sought to know;
Which one would sit by Jesus' side,
When, into heav'n, they'd go?

Calling the twelve unto himself
Jesus began to say
That greatness in God's kingdom works
In much a diff'rent way.

If anyone wants to be first,
He must seek to be last,
To serve others before himself,
And leave pride in his past.

To welcome children in the name
Of Jesus Christ the Lord
Is to receive the God who is
By earth and heav'n adored.

And so, may we, e'er heed Christ's call
To welcome, serve, and love,
To do unto the least of these
As serving God above.
