

With All My heart I'll Praise You Lord

Text: Psalm 138

By Rev. John C. Stennfeld

Tune Meter: CM

Suggested Tune: St. Flavian

With all my heart I'll praise you Lord,
And will for all my days;
Before the nations' other 'gods'
I'll boldly sing your praise.

May all the kings of earth sing praise
To you, our glorious Lord,
And may they sing of your great ways,
That you might be adored.

Though I should walk in trouble's way
You'll not abandon me,
With your right hand you save my life,
And from sin set me free.

So I will praise you, Lord my God,
With all that's in my heart,
And toward your temple I'll bow down,
And from you ne'er depart.
